FEBRUARY 7th.

PIRATE BRIDES ... Yay!!! Everyone knows who they are.

PIRATE BRIDES return to entertain us again with a mixture of contemporary acoustic originals, bluegrass and old time gems.

Described as lively, polished and delightfully irreverent they are renowned for their trademark four part vocal harmonies. A well loved fixture in the Brisbane acoustic music scene.

The band features Rose Broe -accordion, John Holmberg- banjo & mandolin, Ryk Rostron- guitar and Markus Karlsen -Double Bass.

Important note on Membership- Financial members of Folk Redlands are able to attend and have input at regular committee meetings but unable to vote. Thank you to those who have renewed membership or recently joined. Membership forms are available from the information desk at regular events and committee meeting dates and information will be displayed on the website.

FEBRUARY 21ST JUMPING FENCES

An alluring songwriting partnership between Sue Monk and Lachlan Hurse who make a welcome return after holding a song writing workshop at Folk Redlands in November 2009. This is a chance to see them in concert.

“.....their most endearing quality is a sense of integrity about who they are and what they write about.” Sebastian Flynn, Programming & Production Coordinator BEMAC (Brisbane Multicultural Arts Centre)

With strong Latin American influences, the music of Jumping Fences bridges the gap between World and Australian music. They are also the organisers and hosts of the Foco Nuevo music club www.foconuevo.org.au

Coming up next month:

MARCH 7th Local band-
REDLAND BLUEGRASS BOYS Who need no introduction to Folk Redlands' audiences

MARCH 21st DOUBLE BILL
Both performing for the first time at Folk Redlands.

MAXINE MCCABE- Singer songwriter “folk with an edge”

MANDY CONNELL & THE RED SHOES-
Just back from the U.K. Earlier this year. Originals writer Mandy hails from Victoria .She's won the Declan Affley award at the National Folk Festival, the Maldon Minstrel Award at the Maldon Folk Festival, and played many venues around Melbourne. Touring with band The Red Shoes they have a folky feel with old time, jazz and blues influences.
