

Folk Redlands October Newsletter

Zee Hot gossip....Greetings friends of Folk Redlands.....Firstly a big thankyou to Colin Nightingale the outgoing president of the club for all the hard work he has put in since the beginning. Colin has already pledged his ongoing support as a committee member and long may the good music and Folk Redlands continue.

Welcome to our new office bearers Vicky MacDonald - Vice El Presidente, Sarah Morrison – Madame Secretary, Lynne Small- Holder of zee Treasury. I am Julie Minto- new to the job as El Presidente and writer of zee hot gossip newsletter.

What's coming up at next at Folk Redlands.....

Acoustic sessions - will now held twice monthly on the first and third Sunday 10am till 12noon. Everyone is welcome from beginners to the more experienced musicians/singers. Where? IndigiScapes hall (unless the hall is occupied then it will be held outside).

Sunday 4th October "Silken Thomas"

Silken Thomas are a vibrant band with strong Celtic influences. Featuring Brian Brett- lead vocals, guitar & bodhran, Robin Etter-Cleave - flute, Irish tin whistle & vocals, Ian Evans on bass guitar, bodhran and vocals and Steve Stiller vocals, drums & percussion. Be ready to join in and sing along to you're favourite Irish songs..... Personally I think they're friggin' brilliant! Websites:

Sunday October 18th Dave Burton & "Dreams of Flying"

Dave Burton is a prolific and talented songwriter and he will bring an equally talented line-up of musicians in the band Dreams of Flying to perform his original songs at Folk Redlands. Although Dave Burton writes most of the music, it is the genius of the other musicians who make it happen in an exciting way. They may even do some covers – so expect the unexpected! Website:
